

- Total Parliamentary Constituencies: The election results cover all 543 parliamentary constituencies, reflecting the overall composition of the new Lok Sabha.
- BJP Dominance: The Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) emerged as the largest party, winning 240 seats, maintaining its significant influence in national politics.
- Congress Performance: The Indian National Congress (INC) secured 99 seats, showing a moderate performance compared to previous elections.
- Regional Party Impact: Regional parties such as the Samajwadi Party (SP) with 37 seats and the All India Trinamool Congress (AITC) with 29 seats have made notable impacts in their respective states.
- New Entrants: The Janasena Party and the Aazad Samaj Party (Kanshi Ram) made their presence felt with 2 and 1 seats respectively, indicating a growing diversity in political representation.
- State-wise Highlights:
 - Andhra Pradesh: The Telugu Desam Party (TDP) won 16 seats, while the Yuva Jana Sramika Rythu Congress Party (YSRCP) won 4 seats.
 - Odisha: The Biju Janata Dal (BJD) maintained a strong position with 51 seats in the assembly elections.
- Bye-Election Results: A total of 25 assembly constituencies held bye-elections. Significant wins include BJP's victories in multiple Gujarat and Uttar Pradesh constituencies.
- Smaller Parties and Independents: Various smaller parties and independent candidates won seats, such as the Revolutionary Socialist Party (RSP) and independents, highlighting the political pluralism in the country.
- Real-Time Updates: The data was updated live by Returning Officers, ensuring transparency and real-time access to the election results.
- Mobile Accessibility: The Election Commission provided a Voter Helpline app for mobile users, ensuring easy access to the results and updates.