

Total Enrollment: The university has a total of 30,000 students enrolled across all programs.

- Engineering: The College of Engineering has a total of 5,000 students.
- Business: The Business School has 4,000 students enrolled.
- New Programs: A total of 10 new undergraduate programs have been introduced this year.
- Main Focus: The primary focus is on the overall enrollment numbers, indicating the university's extensive academic reach.
- Significant Departments: Engineering and Business are highlighted, suggesting notable activities and growth in these areas.
- Mobile Access: The university offers a Student Portal app, allowing students to access their records and course materials on their mobile devices.
- Real-Time Data: The disclaimer notes that enrollment data is being updated live by the admissions office.
- Data Verification: Final enrollment numbers will be confirmed and shared in the official university report, ensuring transparency.
- Additional Programs: Links for information on Arts and Sciences and Health Sciences are provided, indicating availability of detailed information for these departments.